PLANVIEW PRISMS E-LEARNING DELIVERS

ON-DEMAND CLASSES

On-demand learning provides training on focused topics that can be completed quickly and easily. These modules are available 24/7, so learning fits easily into your schedule. Our always-growing library of on-demand learning is full of formal and informal learning modules that address a variety of learning styles and experience levels.

INSTRUCTOR-LED CLASSES

Instructors deliver live online courses that cover a wide variety of topics and include discussion, demonstration, and live Q&A with the instructor and other students. We keep the topics focused on what matters to you for targeted learning, and small so you can maximize the discussion, which is a key component to effective learning. Best of all, they can be scheduled on the dates and times you request.

ASK THE PLANVIEW EXPERT SESSIONS

These informal, live sessions bring you direct access to the experts at Planview. Bring your questions and join the casual conversations that can deepen your understanding of Planview solutions and help you drive more value from your investment.

CUSTOMIZED E-LEARNING

A unique service, Customized E-Learning enhances the effectiveness of training and brings new employees up to speed quickly. By customizing learning modules with your processes and sample data, we provide you and your team with an improved understanding and retention of the new information, often at a much lower cost than for you to do it in-house.
